PAINT CHQ is a community-forward initiative intended to help highlight the important role public art plays in place-making and strengthening communities. This inaugural year, four CHQ downtowns have been selected to host the new murals. In each town a Steering Committee, consisting of local business owners, local artists, municipal leaders, and invested community members, has been highly engaged in the artist selection and art-work development process. Each of these murals will celebrate Chautauqua County and resonate with locals!

Meet the Sherman muralists, Emily Ding & Justin Suarez aka Aerosol Kingdom, on Monday, September 8th at 6pm at The Cornerstone. Meet the artists and hear the story shaping their vision for our community wall.
